

H
T

YAZARLAR

A form structure is located in the bottom right corner. It consists of a gray header bar with a red circular button containing a white minus sign on the left. Below the header is a white rounded rectangular input field. The form is framed by dashed lines on the top and bottom, and a solid horizontal line is positioned below the input field. A final gray bar is at the very bottom of the form structure.

